

Jennifer Webb

Business Communication Specialist and Motivational Speaker
Magic Communications

Add magic to your communications...

Jennifer offers a variety of highly entertaining, interactive presentations that are ideal for training, conferences, keynotes... all content rich, all using magic.

- Teaching people to communicate effectively anytime, anywhere, to work collaboratively & influence others
- Half day, full day & two day seminars, on-going consulting and high energy Motivational Keynotes
- Key Concepts: Imagination is every bit as important as knowledge, everyone must feel safe and feel acknowledged, yesterday doesn't have to equal any of our tomorrows, forgiveness is key in business

Jennifer Webb's extraordinary programs combine magic, Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP), Emotional Intelligence (EI), accelerated learning, sleight of hand (great visual) and other interactive tools to reach people instantly with messages of inspiration and content.

Her most popular program, "How to Create a Hero Culture at Work" is designed to propel thinking from challenges and frustration to "can do" and "possibilities. Her core message: It all begins with you! It's not about what is happening "out there," instead it's what we focus on, believe and project. Our attitudes and expectations create our realities and impact everyone around us!

Jennifer's dynamic presentations and personality are over the top!
